

Interior of Cathedral of St. Helena

Helena, Montana

This exclusive view of the Cathedral's beautiful interior from the front entrance looking toward the Sanctuary gives the impression of breath-taking elegance and symmetry, having been well described as a symphony of light and color. Basic colors used are ruby red, French gray, charcoal and gold leaf. It is a glorious monument in stone, marble, glass and bronze to the memory of the past, the glory of the present and the hope of the future.
